A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name.

But you say, “How have we despised your name?” By offering polluted food upon my altar. But you say, “How have we polluted you?”
By saying that the LORD’s table may be despised.

When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that not evil?
And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that not evil?
Present that to your governor;
will he accept you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts.

With such a gift from your hand,
will he show favor to any of you?

you who would shut the doors,
that you might not kindle fire pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hand.

For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name will be

For my name will be great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.

But you profane it when you say that the Lord's table is polluted, and its fruit, that is, its food may be despised. But you say, "What a weariness this is," and you snort at it, says the LORD of hosts.

this you bring as your offering!

Cursed be the cheat who has a male in his flock, and vows it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished. For I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name will be feared among the nations.
